

FOUR GOAL TONY EXECUTES CASUALS

Wycombe Wanderers 8, Corinthian Casuals 0

THE SCORELINE tells the whole story—Wycombe Wanderers cold-bloodedly executed Corinthian Casuals at Loakes Park on Tuesday evening in a stunning display of free-flowing football in this eight-goal massacre.

Executioner-in-chief was Tony Horseman, who led the goal-rush with four. Wanderers mounted a continuous wave of attacks on Casuals' 18-yard area as their forwards hunted eagerly for scoring chances.

The pressure on the Casuals' defence was relentless and Wycombe's players inter-changed positions with precision. They moved into space intelligently and both the backs, Charlie Gale and Lou Temel, overlapped continually.

There is no doubt the score could well have been into double figures but for the brave exhibition of goalkeeping from Chris Lamb. Acrobatic Lamb saved his side from a more humiliating defeat.

SALVAGE

Casuals can salvage little from this debacle. However, they retained their pride with a fine example of sportsmanship never losing their tempers as the goals piled-up against them.

This fine triumph is just the tonic Wycombe needed for tomorrow's F.A. Cup clash against St. Albans. Wanderers adopted a 4-3-3 policy with Julian Lailey being released from his strict defensive role allowing him more freedom to go forward. Stuart Thompson filled Lailey's task of tidying up at the back.

It took Wanderers just 12 minutes to get into the scoring habit when Horseman pulled down a cross, sent the defence the wrong way, before poking a crisp 20-yard drive past Lamb.

Wanderers increased their lead through a Tony Horseman penalty, taken with cool

TONY HORSEMAN . . .
grabbed four

precision, in the 32nd minute. Three minutes later Casuals defender Couchman tried to cut off Gale's cross but only succeeded in heading past the helpless Lamb.

Five minutes before the break Horseman completed his hat-trick when he harassed Gayton into losing possession and slipped the ball in from the narrowest of angles.

Perhaps, Lamb's one blemish came 16 minutes after the interval when, following a cross-field run by Worley, who swept past three defenders, Lamb failed to reach a slightly mis-cued shot.

SWITCHED

Seven minutes later Wanderers combined in a splendid move which would have ripped open any defence in the league. Horseman cleverly switched the pattern of the build-up in mid-field by putting Worley in possession. Worley's pin-point cross found Horseman, who had streaked into the box, to head home number six.

In the 70th minute Keith Samuels opened his account when following a goalmouth melee he headed past Lamb after two efforts from Horseman had been blocked.

Ten minutes from the end, with Casuals still trying to play attacking football, Worley strayed into the middle and was on hand to volley a brilliant goal from Samuels' headed pass.

Wycombe Wanderers: J. Maskell; L. Temel, S. Thompson, I. Rundle, C. Gale; B. Baker, D. Thomas, J. Lailey; L. Worley, K. Samuels, A. Horseman. Sub: V. Busby.